From Fr. Greg Havel...

In our Scripture readings we hear how God's plan for the salvation of his people has been in process since the beginning of time. In the person of Jesus, God's plan continues to unfold and brought to completion. Jesus in the Gospel teaches the people and us today that all people are being called by God to experience the forgiveness of God and to live as God's people. The Israelites and the gentiles, symbolized by the Samaritan woman, received the gifts of the Lord Jesus and the challenge to turn their lives to the Lord. God does not exclude anyone from his mercy and forgiveness when with sincere and humble hearts these gifts are sought. May we seek the gifts of God's love in our lives and live faith filled lives in communion with our God.

~Fr. Greg

Eucharistic Revival June 10th

We strongly encourage all the faithful to pray for the Eucharistic Revival in our Diocese as well as our nation. You can join through this prayer for the revival below.

EUCCHARISTIC REVIVAL PRAYER \(PDF\)

In addition to praying for the revival, we ask that you pray for this Congress in particular. We want this Congress to change people's lives and be turning point in our personal devotion to the Lord in the Eucharist, and outreach to those in material and spiritual need. We need to cover this Congress and all those attending it in prayer. Please pray daily for:

- The spiritual protection of the Eucharistic Congress
- An outpouring of the Holy Spirit in grace and power upon the Congress
- And that many missionaries, for local mission and beyond, will be born from this Congress Our patron saints of this Eucharistic Congress are Our Lady of Guadalupe, Bl. Carlo Acutis

Event: Saturday June 10, 9 am to 5:30 pm (includes vigil Mass doors open at 8:00 am)

*Mayo Clinic Event Center Mankato
Early Registration end March 31st*
