From Fr. Havel...

Joyful blessing to all Mothers! We thank God in a very wonderful way this weekend for the gift of our Mothers! I always remember with gratitude my mother and for the love, she shared with dad and her children. With mom's Alzheimer there was a day that we sat visiting and I was dressed in my black clerical shirt. She asked my name and I responded that I was Greg. She looked at me and then shared that she has a son named Greg who was also a priest. (I just wasn't him). Even when mom no longer recognized me I still knew she was and always would be mom. Thank you, Lord, for the gift of mothers. May our mothers always know the love, support, and gratitude of their families.

~Fr. Greg

In our celebrations of the Eucharist, we have received guidelines from the diocese on moving forward from the Covid restrictions. This weekend St. Casimir and next weekend May 14 & 15, St. John the Baptist will begin having, once again, the offertory collection and the ministry of ushers. Our Lady of Mt. Carmel has for some time resumed the ministry of ushers. Thank you to all who volunteered so far, please feel free to talk with me if you are willing to serve God's people of the parish as ushers.
