From Fr. Greg Havel...

This weekend we celebrate the gift of fathers. We thank God for the faith and love that fathers share with their children. May God bless fathers and may they always know the love of their children.

I think often of the times I spent with my father. We spent time playing catch with a baseball or football in the backyard. He would take me fishing and not only showed me how to drive a car when I was old enough but how to change the oil and repair things that broke. Of all the things I can remember that dad did the one thing that defines it all was that he took the time to be present to his kids. I am sure there were times when he would rather have been somewhere else but he made the time for us, his children. May God bless all fathers on this Father's Day. ~Fr. Greg

In Our Prayers:

Departed: Arthur 'Art' William Allis,
and Elaine J Staloch

Soldiers Overseas:

Bernard D. Steinhauer, & Troy Haugh

We are his people: the sheep of his flock.

Institute of Lay Formation Diocese of Winona-Rochester

During the 2023-2024 academic year, in support of our U.S. Church's National Eucharistic Revival, the diocesan Institute of Lay Formation will provide a one-year formation process of intensive study of, and reflection on, the Church's teaching on the Eucharist. With the theme, "Eucharistic Formation for Missionary Discipleship." the aim of this year is to form lay leaders as missionary disciples "who are healed, converted, formed, and unified by an encounter with Jesus in the Eucharist-and who are then sent out on mission 'for the life of the world'.

(www.eucharisticrevival.org/)

Program and registration information are available online at the Institute web page (<https://www.dowr.org/offices/lay-formation/Institute.html>). This will be a special one year program of the Institute, and it is open to all interested by lay women and men in the diocese.
