From Fr. Havel,

Jesus in our Gospel reading this weekend says to the disciples at the lake; "Let us cross to the other side." At first glance it seems to be a simple request. They get in the boat and began moving to the other side of the lake. There is however, another movement happening. It is the movement in the lives of disciples (followers of Jesus) from living out of our humanity to allowing our sharing in the divinity of Jesus to guide our lives. To live as the children of God can be scary. Just as the storm brought fear to the disciples in the boat storms and struggles are part of our Christian lives. To follow Jesus will never be easy. Faithfulness to God may cost us friendships. Doing what is right in the Lord is not always going to be popular or easy but it is how Jesus asks us to live. As Jesus calmed the sea and took away the fear of those in the boat so too as we follow the Lord, Jesus will protect us also.

~Fr. Greg

Institute of Lay Formation Diocese of Winona-Rochester

During the 2023-2024 academic year, in support of our U.S. Church's National Eucharistic Revival, the diocesan Institute of Lay Formation will provide a one-year formation process of intensive study of, and reflection on, the Church's teaching on the Eucharist. With the theme, "Eucharistic Formation for Missionary Discipleship." the aim of this year is to form lay leaders as missionary disciples "who are healed, converted, formed, and unified by an encounter with Jesus in the Eucharist-and who are then sent out on mission 'for the life of the world'.

(www.eucharisticrevival.org/)

Program and registration information are available online at the Institute web page (<https://www.dowr.org/offices/lay-formation/Institute.html>). This will be a special one year program of the Institute, and it is open to all interested by lay women and men in the diocese.

A Big Thank You to our STC volunteers

Thank you to all the women and men, who said yes when asked to help scrub and wax floors, and move tables and chairs. Many hands and prayers made it all possible. If anyone is interested in continuing to help clean inside or outside to keep our Church beautiful for worship, please let Carol Goeden know.

May God bless you all!
