From Fr. Greg Havel...

“Hear then the parable of the sower. The seed sown on the path is the one who hears the word of the kingdom without understanding it, and the evil one comes and steals away what was sown in his heart. The seed sown on rocky ground is the one who hears the word and receives it at once with joy. But he has no root and lasts only for a time. When some tribulation or persecution comes because of the word, he immediately falls away. The seed sown among thorns is the one who hears the word, but then worldly anxiety and the lure of riches choke the word and it bears no fruit. But the seed sown on rich soil is the one who hears the word and understands it, who indeed bears fruit and yields a hundred or sixty or thirtyfold.”

Jesus tells us in our Gospel this weekend that the gift of faith is given to every person. God sows the seeds of faith in the lives of people. How it is received makes all the difference. May God help us to be fertile ground to receive the gifts of God. ~ Fr. Greg

Sacrament of Love

“The Church and the world have a great need of Eucharistic adoration. Jesus waits for us in this sacrament of Love. Let us be generous with our time in going to meet Him in adoration, and in contemplation that is full of faith and ready to make reparation for the great faults and crimes of the world. May adoration never cease.” — Pope John Paul II

OLMC Banner

The colors in the OLMC banner are the traditional colors for Mary. On the bottom of the banner is the logos for the Franciscan Sisters, the Tau cross, and the School Sisters of Notre Dame pin, who are the sisters that taught and worked at OLMC Parish. Also, a rosary representing the Holy Rosary Society that is active in the parish.

STJB Banner

The color for STJB banner is a brown noting what he wore for cloths, camel hair. The banner shows the Baptism of Christ a high point in the ministry of John. You will also note a Rosary for the Holy Rosary Society that is active in the parish. On the bottom of the banner is the logos for the Franciscan Sisters, the Tau cross, and the School Sisters of Notre Dame pin, who are the sisters that taught and worked at St. John's Parish thru the years.

STC Banner

The color that is the backdrop for St. Casimir is a royal purple noting his royal background. You will also note a Rosary for the Holy Rosary Society that is active in the parish. Then we have the symbol for the Catholic School that has been a part of St. Casimir's parish life since 1915. On the bottom of the banner is the logos for the Franciscan Sisters, the Tau cross, and the School Sisters of Notre Dame pin, who are the sisters that taught and worked at St. Casimir Parish thru the years.
