Fr. Greg Havel...

Our Scripture readings this weekend tell us to "Think of what is above, not of what is on earth." St. Paul in the letter to the Colossians reminds them that they died with Christ in Baptism and rose with him to new life. Because of this Baptism, St. Paul tells them to put to death the parts of you that are earthly; immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and the greed that is idolatry.

Jesus in the Gospel repeats this same message of the uselessness of spending our lives chasing after earthly things. In the parable of the farmer who says to himself, "You have so many good things stored up for many years, rest, eat, drink, be merry." But God said to him "you fool, this night your life will be demanded if you, and the things you have prepared, to who will they belong?"

We are to keep our eyes always fixed on the Lord and our hearts on the things of God.

There we find lasting peace. ~Fr. Greg

PICK OF THE WEEK

August 7, 2022

FORMED NOW: MARTYRS AND MONASTICS

We celebrate many martyrs and monastics during this rich week in the liturgical calendar. But how did the Church become a place of heroic martyrdom and steadfast monasticism? In this video, Dr. Ben Akers sits down with Dr. Elizabeth Klein to discuss these themes and their history in the early Church.
