From Fr. Greg Havel...

Jesus teaches us about life in the spirit as he says, "Come to me all who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest." Jesus calls us to come to him as we are. Sometimes we bring with us the joys of our lives but often we come to the Lord in the midst of our struggles and pains. In the burdens of our lives God brings strength and healing. Unfortunately there are some who in the midst of their suffering get angry with God and walk away. At the time of their lives when they are most in need of the love of God they separate themselves from the Lord. May God strengthen our faith in the love and healing power of God and keep us always united to our Lord.

~ Fr. Greg

Sacrament of Love

"The Church and the world have a great need of Eucharistic adoration. Jesus waits for us in sacrament of Love. Let us be generous with our time in going to meet Him in adoration, and in contemplation that is full of faith and ready to make reparation for the great faults and crimes of the world. May adoration never cease."

"I will Give You Rest"

Today Jesus tell us, "Come to Me, all you who labor and are burdened and I will give you rest." God understands that we get tired and worn out. He wants us to come to Him when we need to rest. He refreshes our souls and gives us the energy and strength to carry on.

Do you ever feel like quitting when a job gets hard? Maybe you get tired of school or helping your Mom or Dad. When you feel like giving up it's time to start praying! Your work might seem easier when you pray, but even if it still seems hard you will be happier knowing that you are doing it for God.

Jesus tells us to take His yoke on our shoulders. A yoke is a sort of bar that is used to help carry heavy things. Jesus is saying that we should do His work. For some people that means preaching like He did, or healing the sick, or being a priest, but for most people it means just doing everything we have to do out of love for God.
