PRAYER & WORSHIP

14th Ordinary Sunday, July 6, 2025 – C Cycle

Readings: Isaiah 66:10-14; Galatians 6:14-18; Luke 10:1-12, 17-20

This key message is about discipleship with its challenges, difficulties, and rewards. Sharing in the mission of Jesus is difficult, but everyone is called to do it, not just some professionals trained for ministry. Even for us today, the harvest is plentiful. We should pray to the master of the harvest to send out workers for His harvest.

What kind of harvest does the Lord want us to reap today for His kingdom? When Jesus commissioned seventy of His disciples to go on a Mission, He gave them a vision of a vast field that is ready to be harvested for the kingdom of God.

Jesus frequently used the image of a harvest to convey the coming of God's reign on earth. The harvest is the fruition of much labor and growth, beginning with the sowing of seeds, then growth to maturity and finally the reaping of fruit for the harvest.

In like manner, the word of God is sown in the hearts of receptive men and women, who hear His word, accept it with trust and obedience and then share the abundant fruit of God's word in their life with others. The harvest Jesus had in mind was not only the gathering in of the people of Israel, but all the people of the world.

What is the significance of Jesus appointing seventy disciples to the Ministry of the Word? Seventy was a significant number in biblical times. In Jesus' times seventy was held to be the number of nations throughout the world. Jesus commissioned the seventy to a two-fold task - to speak in His name and to act with His power.

Jesus sends the seventy forth with no magical powers. He invests them with no special authority. They are to go about their work with humility and joy. They are to offer peace to all. They are to accept whatever hospitality is offered to them with gratitude. They are to be Jesus' agents for healing and reconciliation. And Jesus promises that they will make a difference in people's lives and their dedication to the work of the Gospel will make a difference in their own lives as well.

Jesus commissions the seventy disciples of the Gospel and all of us today to proclaim peace that is centered in embracing Christ's attitude of servanthood and His spirit of Compassion and Peace that enables us to bring forth the good that exists within everyone. ~Fr. Pratap
