From Fr. Greg Havel...

Love, as God speaks of it in our Scriptures this weekend, is meant to be lived out in our concern for one another. The prophet Ezekiel is told by God to seek out the sinner and call them back to the Lord. St. Paul in our second reading calls us again to love one another. Jesus in the Gospel calls us to always be in search of those who have strayed from God's mercy and love and to be about the work of bringing them back to the Lord.

May God strengthen us to live lives that truly show a concern for our brothers and sisters. May our words and actions be always instruments of God's mercy and forgiveness.

~Fr. Greg

What should I do when somebody else sins?

In today's Gospel reading Jesus tell us that if someone sins against us we should quietly go and talk to them about it. Have you ever seen someone else do something bad? Did you talk to them about it?

When we talk to somebody about something bad they are doing we should do it with love. We aren't trying to make them feel bad; we're trying to help!

Has anyone ever told you when you were doing something wrong? Did you find it easy to listen to them? When we try to help people who do bad things, what God wants us to do is be kind to them and help them to turn away from their sins. It's hard to do, but it makes God so happy to see us helping people come back to Him!
