Spiritual Communion

When we're prevented from receiving Holy Communion at Mass, the Church encourages us to make an act of "spiritual communion," where we unite ourselves to God through prayer. It is a beautiful way to express to God our desire to be united with him.

Spiritual Communion Prayer

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.

Congratulations to Derek & Kelly Bakken who were united in Holy Matrimony on Saturday, September 5, 2020, at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel, Easton. May the joy of your love for one another strengthen your bond and draw you closer to our savior, Jesus Christ. God bless you in your marriage!

Update from Catholic Charities on the Worthington Deanery COVID Relief Fund: We would like to express our deepest gratitude to those parishes and individuals who have so generously given to this fund. Because of the donations of people across the Diocese, we have been able to help more than 30 families so far with more than $13,000 in assistance with housing and utilities. We have more funds available, and the applications are continuing to be submitted to us every day. Because the COVID outbreaks are still serious in our area, we anticipate that we will continue to have people who don't qualify for other means of assistance and desperately need help with necessities. For more information you may email me at: lkremer@ccsommn.org and may God bless you for your compassion for those in need and your support of Catholic Charities. ~ Lisa Kremer OFS – Catholic Charities' Coordinator of Parish Social Ministry for the Worthington Deanery

From Fr. Havel...

The Scriptures this weekend remind us that we have a responsibility for one another to the Lord. Jesus speaks of calling the sinner back to the Lord and gives us a pattern to follow. God tells the prophet Ezekiel in our first reading that he needs to call the sinner to repentance. Ezekiel learns that he will not be judged on the sinners response but rather that he delivered God's message. May God keep us faithful and give us the courage to speak the words of God to others. Pray every day for the power of God's mercy in the lives of those who have embraced the things of this world instead of God. Come Lord Jesus.

~ Fr. Greg

St. Casimir's School Update

Dear Parishioners,

We will begin classes at St. Casimir's School on Monday, September 14. I am looking forward to a wonderful year. We welcome to our school, Mrs. Diane Edwards, who will be our School Principal as well as teaching 4th, 5th and 6th grades. Mrs. Ethel Aranda will be teaching the 2nd and 3rd grades and we welcome back Mrs. Beth Emerson who will teach our Kindergarten and First grade classes. The teachers are busy preparing and so is the custodial staff setting up and sanitizing the building. May God bless all that they do and may they be a source of God's blessings in the lives of our children. ~ Fr. Greg Greetings!

Most Rev. John M. Quinn, Bishop of the Diocese of Winona-Rochester would like to share with you his gratitude and appreciation for your generosity towards the Catholic Ministries Appeal, which is a primary source of funding to help sustain and expand ministries in parishes, Catholic schools, Newman Centers and countless programs and ministries of the diocesan church.

During these uncertain times, parishioners have come together and shown their continued support of their local parishes and diocesan church. Your donations and gifts have helped support countless Catholics across the diocese. It is truly a work of God's people.

It is through the Catholic Ministries Appeal that the Church is able to SHARE HIS GOOD GIFTS WITH ALL.

Blessed are you!

Most Rev. John M. Quinn
